- (3) The broker/dealer stock account shall be operated by a principal officer duly authorised by the broker/dealer's board of directors.

19. Margin Account

(1) For the purposes of this Rule-

- (a) "debit balance" means the cash amount owed by a client in the client's margin account before deducting cash deposited by the client as margin;
- (b) "equity" means the sum of margin and current market value of securities bought or carried in a client's margin account;
- (c) "margin" means the aggregate amount of cash and market value of securities deposited by a client into the client's margin account, but does not include securities which are bought and carried in the margin account;
- (d) "marginable securities" means securities permitted by the Exchange to be bought and carried in margin accounts.

(2) A broker/dealer may extend credit facilities to approved clients for securities transactions subject to the margin account requirements prescribed by the Authority.

(3) Margin account arrangements must be evidenced in the form of a written agreement executed between the broker/dealer and the client.

(4) A client who operates a margin account with a broker/dealer shall authorise the broker/dealer to mortgage, pledge or hypothecate the client's securities or property for a sum not exceeding the debit balance in the margin account and without obligation to retain in its possession or control securities of like character: the broker/dealer shall also be given the discretion to sell or dispose of any or all the securities in any manner in order to meet with the prescribed margin requirements.

(5) The margin deposited by clients with the broker/dealer shall be in the form of cash, securities issued by the Government or its agencies, marginable securities and such other instruments as the Exchange may from time to time prescribe. The initial margin must be deposited with the broker/dealer not later than three days from the first date of securities transaction and shall be such amount that would result in the equity being not less than 140% of the debit balance in the margin account.

(6) Whenever the equity in a client's margin account falls below 130% of the debit balance, the broker/dealer shall request the client to provide additional margin to bring the equity to not less than 130%. Such additional margin must be satisfied by deposit of cash or marginable securities within three days from the date of notice. The broker/dealer shall not permit any new transactions in the margin account unless the resulting equity in the account would be not less than 130% of the debit balance.

- (7) A Trading Participant shall not permit the equity in a client's margin account to fall below 120% of the debit balance. Once the equity falls below this level, the broker/dealer shall have absolute discretion and without notice to the client to liquidate the margin account including the marginal securities deposited to bring the equity to not less than 130% of the debit balance.
- (8) The Trading Participant shall cause daily review to be made of all margin accounts to ensure that credit is not over-extended beyond the approved facility and that the margin requirements prescribed above are met at all times. For the purpose of computing margin requirements in a margin account, the last done price of the security on the preceding market day shall be used. All transactions done on the same day shall be combined on a transaction date basis and the total cost of purchase or the net proceeds of sale including any commission charged and other expenses shall be taken into account for computing margin requirements.
- (9) The Trading Participant shall require substantial additional margin in account where the securities carried are subject to unusually rapid or violent changes in value, or do not have an active market or have been suspended from trading on the Exchange for more than seven days or where the quantity carried is such that it cannot be liquidated promptly.
- (10) A client may withdraw cash or securities from their account provided that the equity in the client's account does not fall below 140% of the debit balance.
- (11) All securities transactions in a margin account shall be on the regular Trading Board. The margin account shall not be used to subscribe for new issues of securities.

20. Discretionary Account

- (1) "Discretionary account" means an account in which the client gives a Trading Participant discretion which may be complete or within specific limits as to the purchase and sale of securities including selection, timing and price to be paid or received.
- (2) No Trading Participant shall exercise any discretionary authority in respect of a discretionary account unless-
 - (a) the client has given prior written authorization to the broker/dealer to exercise discretion on the account; and
 - (b) the Trading Participant has accepted the discretionary account in accordance with these Rules.
- (3) The authorization given to the broker/dealer shall specify the investment objectives of the client with respect to the particular discretionary account and each authorization or acceptance may be terminated by notice in writing by the broker/dealer or the client, as the case may be.

21. Exposure to a single client

- (1) No broker/dealer shall permit deficits arising from transactions by a single client to exceed 30% of its average adjusted net capital.
- (2) In subrule (1), "deficits" means -
 - (a) the excess of amount owed by the single client in the client's cash account over the market value of all the client's securities held by the broker/dealer as collateral;
 - (b) the amount of margin deficiency in the single client's margin account as determined by minimum margin requirement permitted under Rule 19(6) of these Rules;
 - (c) the amount of unsecured interest charged on amounts owed by the single client; and
 - (d) the amount of unsecured loans and advances granted to the single client.
- (3) In subrule (1) "average adjusted net capital" means the average of adjusted net capital of the three months preceding the previous month and "adjusted net capital" as provided for in Rule 37 of these Rules.

22. Exposure to a single security

- (1) No broker/dealer shall permit its exposure to a single security to exceed 300% of its average adjusted net capital.
- (2) In subrule (1), "exposure to a single security" means -
 - (a) the net amount of the single security underwritten or sub-underwritten by the broker/dealer;
 - (b) the book value of the single security carried in the broker/dealer's own account;
 - (c) the contract value of the single security underlying clients' cash accounts to the extent that they have not been paid for;
 - (d) the amount of credit extended to clients for the purchase of the single security on margin;
 - (e) the amount of interest receivable secured by the single security; and
 - (f) the amount of loans and advances secured by the single security.
- (3) Subrule (1) shall not apply to -
 - (a) securities issued by the Uganda Government or its agencies; and
 - (b) the broker/dealers arbitrage transactions.

23. Trust Accounts

- (1) Each broker/dealer shall establish and keep in a designated bank (s) in Uganda one or more trust accounts, designated or evidenced as such, into which the trading participant shall pay-
 - (a) all amounts (less any commission and other proper charges) that are received from or on account of any person (other than a broker/dealer) for the purchase of securities and that are not attributable to securities delivered to the broker/dealer not later than the next bank business day following the day on which they were received by the broker/dealer; and
 - (b) all amounts (less any commission and other proper charges) that are received for or on account of any person (other than a broker/dealer) from the sale of securities and that are not paid to that person or as that person directs not later than the next bank business day following the day on which they were received by the broker/dealer.
- (2) All amounts received by the broker/dealer for or on account of any person and which are required by subrule (1) to be paid into a trust account shall be retained in the trust account until-
 - (a) paid to the person entitled to them or as such person directs in writing;
 - (b) withdrawn for the purpose of defraying commission and other proper charges; or
 - (c) paid as otherwise authorised by law.

24. Records

- (1) Every Trading Participant shall maintain records in sufficient detail to show particulars of-
 - (a) all moneys received or paid, including moneys paid to, or disbursed from a trust account;
 - (b) all purchases and sales of securities by persons associated with the broker/dealer and the charges and credits arising therefrom, and the names of the buyer and seller respectively, of each of those securities;
 - (c) all income received from commissions, interest and other sources and all expenses, commissions and interest paid;
